Willard resumed boxing today after Monday's layoff. The champion said he was entirely satisfied with the progress he is making and thought a day of idleness would be beneficial to his condition.

Tex Rickard, promoter of the Independence day match, said today that if all of the seats in the huge arena are sold, the gate receipts will total $1,009,000. The advance sale has reached $400,000, leaving $600,000 worth of scats remaining to be sold.

Tribute to Baugh.

President John D. Martin, of the Southern, paid a warm tribute to expression Baugh. "His support of the league has been most cordial and friendly." says the league president, "and I am sure that baseball and the Southern league has one of its strongest friends and supporters in Bob Baugh. He never fails to come to the bat when there is an opportunity to do something for the good of the league or laseball in the Southand, and I want to say that I appreciate it, not only for the game's sake of the sake of the league, but for the fans, who love baseball first of all among the various sports. Bob Baugh has always been one of the prime movers in everything looking toward an improvement in the Southern league and baseball in general, and it is a tribute to his everlasting loyalty and faithfulness when the Southern is on such a high plane that it now enjoys. I will take great pleasure in paying a tribute to Bob Baugh, who is the friend of the Southern league and one of its strongest supporters and boosters."

THE CASE OF BRATCHI.

The Chicks are slated to meet the Atlanta Crackers in a double-header Wednesday in Atlanta, the first game beginning at 2:15 o'clock. Manager Barger will probably pitch one of the games and will use Eddle Foster in the other. Canavan or Goodbred will probably occupy the mound in the Tuesday game, with George Block back of the plate.

The Crackers were outlucked in Monday's affair, and although Roy Fentress was hammered all over the lot he managed to get the decision.
